

BAB V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

After analyzing the data in chapter IV, the writer comes to the conclusion of this study. The conclusion are the answer of the problem statement in chapter I. Besides that, in this chapter the writer also would like to give some suggestion which are based on the conclusion that are gained from the result of analysis and discussion. The conclusion and suggestion in detail are presented below:

5.1 Conclusions

The discussion and analysis of the students' Pronunciation in chapter IV leads the writer to draw the conclusion as follows:

1. The Eighth grade students of SMPN 8 Kupang in the school year 2018/2019 are able to Pronounce English words, as the average of the students' ability is 7,6 or Good.
2. The students' ability level in pronouncing English words are varied from 1 student got Excellent level, 8 students' got Very good level, 14 students' got Good level, 3 students' got Above average level, based on the result of the date research there were 3 categories not included in classification of students' (Average, Bad, Poor). After the researcher analyzed all the scores of students' pronunciation the researcher found that the ability level of the whole class was 7,6 categorized as Good.

3. There are 29 out of 40 English words were mispronounced by the students. The words that were mostly mispronounce by the students are: Tired (One syllable) Fever and Prefer (Two syllables), Dangerous, Introduce and Punishment (Three syllables), Conversation and Encouragement (Four Syllables).

5.2 Suggestion

The writer deems necessary to give some suggestions regarding the result of the study.

a. For the Teacher

To improve the mistakes committed by the students, the English teacher should pay attention to the students' pronunciation by correcting them when they mispronounce the words.

b. For the Students

The students should drill themselves in pronouncing English words. This can be done by consulting printed or electronic dictionaries.

Finally, the writer also encourages future studies on the same area in order to enrich references on the issue of English pronunciation.
