

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter presents the conclusion and the suggestion of the study. Conclusion goes in line with the problem statements and the objectives having been formulated in chapter one, theory in chapter two, methods and techniques of the data analysis applied in chapter three and the result of the data having been found in chapter four.

5.1 Conclusion

The study is about semantics of expressions in emotions in Uab Meto Language. At this point, the writer would like to highlight some points regarding this study.

1. Uab Meto has six different expressions of emotions namely anger (uto'o, nekak kan malinaf), fear (umtau, mahe), sadness (susal, nekak noe, nekak namen, nekak susal), happiness (malin, nekak an malin, malinke kah), surprise (uskek, uskek ma usman, uskek ma taklae), and disgust (ma'nis)
2. These expressions are used in different context to express different meaning. Furthermore, each expression has both lexical and grammatical meaning.

5.2 Suggestion

In line with the significance of the study and the result of the data analysis, some suggestion would be offered to many sides accordingly as shown in the following:

1. Experts of Linguistics

The experts of linguistics and other related subjects are suggested to do a continued study or similar study to confirm and extend the linguistics evidence of expressions of emotions in Uab Meto.

2. Linguistic Researchers

Other researchers are suggested to conduct other researches focusing on other linguistic areas such as phonology.

3. Uab Meto Speaker

Uab meto is a local language that must be taught to young generation that this language will not face endangerment. The Uab Meto speakers should feel proud speaking their language because this language is very interesting and challenging to study.
