

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

5.1 Conclusion

In this part the writer provides the Conclusion and offers some suggestions.

Based on the data analysis, the researcher concluded that:

1. The use of flashcard in teaching present continuous tense to the eighth grade students of SMP Negeri 1 Kupang in the school year 2016/2017 is effective.
2. The implementation of using flashcards to improve students 'understanding on teaching Present Continuous Tense could be applied by using methods and activities such as drilling, playing the game using flashcard.

5.2 Suggestions

There were some suggestions for the students and the English Teacher.

The suggestions were as follows:

1. For the teacher

Tenses are mostly known as difficult subject, the use of flashcard in teaching learning was an interesting media because it could attract the students' interest, it is easy for students to memorize the materials in learning. English teacher should make the teaching learning process enjoyable, because students loved to play and learn best when they were enjoying themselves.

The researcher suggested for the teachers to use flash cards as teaching aid. Teachers can use several flashcard in any subject; they can choose the appropriate flashcard with the material. They can find the flashcard by buying them, or can make it themselves.

2. For the students

Tenses are important subject to be learnt. But, most of students have difficulties in learning tenses because there are some tenses in English and there are no tenses in Indonesian language system. Therefore, students should develop their knowledge by studying grammar using interesting media like flashcard because flashcard can attract the students' interest and motivation in learning process.

3. For the school

This research was carried out in SMP Negeri 1 Kupang in the Academic Year of 2017. The researcher concluded that students in this school have motivation in learning, because there were many facilities such as library collection and there were language laboratory. School also prepared and design the material based on the students need and their competence. School also provide interesting learning environment to the students such as providing language laboratory and teaching media.

Finally, the researcher realized that this paper is far from being perfect, because of that constructive critics and advice are really expected for the perfection of the thesis. Hopefully, this thesis will be useful for all of us.
