

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter, the writer would like to present the conclusion and suggestion dealing with the study. The conclusion is done based on the result of data analysis and discussion in the previous chapter while the suggestion is done based on the conclusion which is gained from the result of data analysis and discussion. The conclusion and suggestion in detailed are presented below.

5.1 Conclusion

Based on the result of data analysis and discussion, the writer comes to draw the conclusions. It can be concluded that the students of language class eleventh grades of SMAK Sint Carolus Penfui Kupang in the school year 2016/2017 are able comprehension ors can understand the text they have read. Although there are some errors had made such as incomplete or incorrect words, incomplete sentences, and or some other additional errors but it shows that they still understand the instruction towards the content of the reading text. There are also some students who do not understand the instructions towards the text they have read but some of their correct answers show that they have still better ability in understanding a reading text.

Furthermore, based on the three tables which are shown in the previous chapter. Their ability level for both multiple choice and essay test and for the whole tests can be concluded as written below.

- a. The students' ability level for multiple-choice test is "belowaverage" (4.72).
- b. The students' ability level for essay test is "fairly good" (7.527).
- c. The students' ability level for the whole test is "average" (5.618).
- d. The areas of difficulties faced by the eleventh grades students of SMA Sint Carolus Penfui Kupang in comprehending reading text are grammar. The grammatical difficulties faced was about simple past form. For Example: Question number 3 was answered incorrectly by two students. The difficulties on pronouns. For Example: Question number 1 was answered incorrectly by one student. The difficulies on vocabulary. For Example: Question number 2 was answered incorrectly by two students.

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the result of data analysis and discussion, the writer would like to give some suggestions that might be useful for both English teacher and students of SMAK Sint Carolus Penfui Kupang. The suggestions are presented in detailed below.

- a. The English teacher should give the students more exercises in the classroom interaction or as homework dealing with an English reading text.

- b. The English teacher should give the students more exercises dealing with writing a complete or a correct word. It should be done because error in writing an English word can influence the meaning of the word even to the word itself or in the sentence.
- c. The English teacher should give more exercises to the students dealing with vocabulary even in the classroom interaction or as homework. It should be done because vocabulary is very influence the students' comprehend toward an English instruction dealing with reading text. Be master the vocabulary make the students are easily to understand the meaning of the sentence.
- d. The students should do more exercises themselves dealing with writing a correct word and as often as possible read English texts and try to understand.
